Form 990, Part III, Line 1 - Organization Mission

At Guide Dogs of America, we believe that a well-trained guide dog partner offers new opportunities for greater independence, enhanced mobility, and social interaction. Our 7.5 acre campus in Southern California is home to all of our programs and our services are provided free of charge, including:

A professionally trained, highly qualified, expertly matched guide dog

Personalized instruction in how to care for and work with that dog as a team

Transportation to and from our school

Room and board during the 21-day in-residence training program $\,$

Veterinary care at our clinic

Extensive post-graduate support services

Finding the right partner, forming a strong bond, and maintaining a solid support system are the keys to a successful guide dog team. Guide Dogs of America's program embraces all of these.

Our guide dogs are trained to work with their human partners as a team to safely and confidently navigate in a wide range of environments. Guide dog teams are taught the skills to proactively travel in a safe and confident manner.

Our trainers are experts at pairing students with the right canine partner, with special consideration given to their personalities and unique characteristics, work and home environments, physical abilities, and a variety of other factors.

Our objective is not only to provide excellent guide dogs and quality instruction, but also to strive to maintain the true success of a team - longevity. Thus, lifetime support services, including training follow-ups, veterinary care at our on-campus clinic, and boarding services are available for each graduated team, at no cost.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a - Program Service Accomplishments

Approximately 110 puppies were in raiser homes during the year. Our puppy program monitors and assist with training in the community until the dogs are returned to the school. The kennel boards these dogs when requested and cares for all dogs returned for formal training at approximately 18 months old. Qualified instructors take over training the skill set required for a guide dog. Throughout this time, our veterinary center manages the medical aspect of our dogs.

Our goal is to graduate 60 guide dog teams each year and provide a lifetime of support to all graduated teams. The school's primary programs are dedicated to: breeding dogs with the optimal health, temperament and desire for guide work; ensuring the proper care, development, socialization and training of those dogs; teaching the dogs and students to work together as a team; and providing the on-going support necessary to ensure all graduated teams remain safe and effective throughout their working lives.

The school's primary departments as measured by expenses are: Breeding, Puppy Program, Kennels, Guide Dog Training, Student Training, Accommodations and Graduate Services, and Veterinary Clinic.
