“Pins for Pups”

2024 Charity Bowling Event

Dear Friend,

The International Association of Machinists and Aerospace Workers, Local 1726 (employees from major airlines at Logan International Airport) is proud to announce our 6th annual IAM Local 1726 Charity Bowling Event, “Pins for Pups”, to benefit the Guide Dogs of America/Tender Loving Canines.

This event will be held on Tuesday May 7, 2024 at Town Line Luxury Lanes in Malden Massachusetts.

This organization (founded by IAM members) provides guide dogs to blind or visually impaired individuals, with training, and instruction in their use, free of charge, as well as service dogs to veterans, children with autism and facility dogs with professionals in hospitals, schools, and courtrooms.

We are seeking donations to assist us in raising funds for this worthy cause as well as promoting local businesses. All proceeds will go directly to Guide Dogs of America, a 501 (c) (3) organization. All donations are tax deductible to the extent provided by law. Tax ID# 95-1586088

Thanks to support like yours, IAM Local 1726 looks forward to supporting this worthy cause now and in the future.

If you would like to attend, this event (pre-registration required) will open at 2:00PM; and includes bowling from 3:00PM to 5:00PM and the after party from 5:00PM- 7:00PM with food, cash bar, along with door prizes and raffle drawings and a wicked good time.

If you are able to attend pre-registration is required and can be done via Eventbrite

If you are unable to attend, please consider a generous donation. Additionally, we will be holding raffles to help benefit the GDA. Any gift you can donate for the raffle would be greatly appreciated.

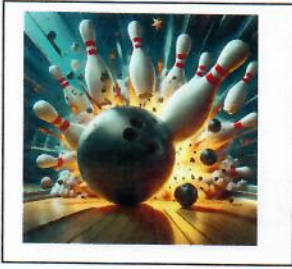

Please feel free to contact us if you have any questions or require additional information.

We thank you for your anticipated support of this worthy cause, and look forward to a successful event!

Fraternally,
